Greetings from the IUHPFL office!

We hope your foreign language students have returned to your classroom with confidence and enthusiasm. The summer of 2012 saw the IUHPFL sending its largest number of students abroad yet. It was another successful year, thanks in part to dedicated high school teachers like you!

In the next few days, as part of the new 2012/2013 Program cycle, we will mail you a packet with the following materials:

- IUHPFL Promotional Bookmarks to be distributed to all foreign language students interested in the Program. The Self-Evaluation on the back asks students to consider a series of questions before taking the test to apply to the Program. Should you need more bookmarks, please let our office know.
- IUHPFL Factsheet, an overview of the Program to be distributed to interested students, their parents and other teachers, also downloadable from the IUHPFL website.
- IUHPFL Competitive Analysis, an overview of how the IUHPFL compares to other popular study abroad programs, to be distributed to interested students, their parents and other teachers, also downloadable from the IUHPFL website.

The following materials were sent to you last year, but should you need extra copies, please let our office know:

- IUHPFL Poster to be placed prominently in the hallway or foreign language classroom.
- IUHPFL DVD, a new video to be shown to students, teachers and parents, also available on our website.

Whether you have encouraged your foreign language students to participate in the IUHPFL in the past or are new to the Program, we encourage you to visit our newly redesigned website. There you’ll find additional information, materials and ideas on how to promote the IUHPFL at your school and share the excitement and successes of study abroad. You will notice that there is an entire section dedicated to high school teachers that includes great resources for prospective IUHPFL students and parents.

Next Steps

If you decide to learn more and move forward, please visit our website.

1. Print out the “Agreement to Participate” — all schools are asked to provide basic information that will help us stay in touch with you throughout the IUHPFL 2012/2013 cycle. Please return the completed form to us via e-mail, fax or U.S. mail by September 14, 2012.
2. Introduce potential students to the IUHPFL Program.
3. Encourage them to sign up for the language test — a great tool to complement language instruction.

Thank you for your continued support for the IUHPFL. As always, we look forward to answering your questions and working with you and your students.

Best,
Stephanie
